

Important for Today, Wednesday, March 18th, 2020

Dear HFGS Families, Faculty, Staff, Students, and Friends,

Congratulations on our families' active participation and 99.9% attendance in our Distance Learning instruction! Our Homeroom faculty conference summary today reports that there is just one student who still needs to log in. There are only a few students left who are required to check in with the allied teachers (Art, Music, Technology, Spanish, and PE). Over-all, HFGS families' immediate response to the importance of remote learning is remarkably admirable!

We are so proud of our faculty who have organized their virtual classrooms and have continued to explore on educational apps designed to assist and maximize student learning. We just shared our success stories and challenges of the first three days (Monday being the first day to launch our platform).

We would like to hear yours.

Please go to www.menti.com and:

Use the code 23 54 83 for parents / guardians' sharing of the POSITIVES and HIGHLIGHTS of our remote learning method.

Use the code 86 84 40 for the CHALLENGES.

As we have moved our classes online to mitigate the spread of COVID-19, we will base our hopes and confidence from your feedback and recommendations. This will facilitate steps and procedures much easier and effective for student learning.

*Please check Gradelink as each subject teacher provides set criteria for class requirements and a minimum of two assessment grades per week.

Attendance is dependent on each child's virtual classroom log-in, turn in of specified task(s), and / or participation from class.

Alerts are provided for students who will be receiving A+ or A (for you to reward your child); and D or F (for you to follow through).

We miss everybody especially the children and your children are missing their friends. This too shall pass and we will all be back in school soon. Meanwhile, please stay safe, carry out social distancing and hygiene practices.
